Turru Release

In the Kaurna language, Turru signifies a ridgetop or elevated spine of the landscape – a place of perspective, connection and passage. It's a fitting reference to the Punchbowl Lookout and trails in the Onkaparinga River National Park, which offer stunning views of the 30-metre-high gorge. And it's just 15 minutes from Noarlunga. By embracing this name, Noarlunga acknowledges the traditional Kaurna understanding of the land and its network of ridges and valleys, celebrating a community that rises above to find clarity, connection and opportunity. Hence, we have named this release, Turru.
