

SOCIAL MEDIA

Noarlunga's social media account(s) have been established by the Urban Renewal Authority trading as Renewal SA (Renewal SA) to provide the local community and general public with updates on project-related activities within Noarlunga.

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

By following or posting to our social media account(s), you confirm that you have read this information and consent to your information being used as described on this webpage.

ONLINE COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

Conversations, posts and comments should be respectful and constructive at all times and we encourage you to have open and honest discussions whilst being respectful of our online community. We reserve the right to remove content and comments at our absolute discretion.

When engaging via Renewal SA's social media account(s), you must adhere to the relevant social media site's terms of use and the moderation guidelines outlined here. Please refer to the Disclaimer below and our Privacy statement for information on how we protect your privacy.

MODERATION GUIDELINES

South Australia has strict guidelines and legislations regarding discrimination and intimidation. We will take a strong stance on moderating and deleting content which is irrelevant, discriminatory, hateful or threatening and actions which may offend, insult, humiliate or intimidate.

When contributing your views to Renewal SA's social media account(s), please ensure that you follow the guidelines below:

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY

Do protect your personal privacy and that of others by not including personal information about yourself or others in your comments (such as names, email addresses, private addresses or phone numbers).

Do represent your own views and do not impersonate or falsely represent any other person.

Do not post material to the forum that infringes the intellectual property rights of others.

RELEVANCE

Do post material to our social media pages or news feeds that is relevant to the topics and issues being discussed.

Do not post identical or near-identical versions of the same content.

Do not post content promoting personal and professional interests.

Do not promote commercial interests in your posts.

Do not post overtly party political comment (e.g. reference to candidates, fundraisers, support for political parties).

Do not re-post other people's appeals, requests or offers, or anything that could be considered spam.

DISCRIMINATION AND OFFENSIVE CONTENT

Do not use obscene or offensive language.

Do not use insulting, provocative or hateful language.

Do not abuse, harass or threaten others.

Do not make defamatory or libellous comments.

Do not post anything which is likely to offend, insult or humiliate others, particularly on the basis of their race, colour, descent, national origin, religion, ethnicity, gender, age, sexual orientation or any disability.

Do not post anything which vilifies others on the basis of their race or religion.

Do not post anything which incites, induces or aids violence, discrimination, harassment, victimisation or hatred towards others.

Do not incite or encourage conduct that may constitute a criminal or civil offence or otherwise violate Australian law.

Be mindful when posting descriptions or personal stories that they are not gratuitously graphic, or could be deemed as deliberately upsetting for other users.

HOW WE ENGAGE

We encourage feedback and ideas from our followers, and will join the conversation where possible. While we read all comments and messages we receive via our social media account(s), we are not able to reply individually to all of them.

Any responses by Renewal SA are not legal advice. You should seek your own legal advice for your particular situation.

Renewal SA's social media account(s) are usually staffed from 9.00am to 5.00pm CST during normal South Australian business days. Posts, comments and messages received outside these hours will be reviewed on the following business day.

DISCLAIMER

The material on Renewal SA's social media account(s) is presented for the purpose of providing information and encouraging public discussion.

Any views expressed on our social media account(s) by anyone other than Renewal SA are not the views of the project and Renewal SA disclaims all liability for any such views, comments, advertising or other non-Renewal SA content posted onto this site.

Renewal SA do not endorse or otherwise support any view and opinion posted by a user or contributor on our social media account(s). We reserve the right to remove content and comments at our absolute discretion.

Renewal SA do not control, endorse or otherwise support any advertising that may be displayed by the owner of this site.

Renewal SA review the content and posts on our social media account(s) on a regular basis. However, there may be times when offensive comments that do not meet our Moderation Guidelines appear on the site and are not immediately removed.

The information on this site is current at the time of publication.

YOUR PRIVACY

Please note that by using our social media account(s) via the relevant social media site, you are subject to the site owner's terms of service and privacy policy. If you wish to provide input to this consultation without being subject to the social media site owner's terms, please visit our website.

When posting, commenting or interacting with our social media account(s), you may provide us with information about yourself or other matters. Some of this information may be used in an aggregate anonymous form to report on the level of engagement through our social media account(s) using the site owner's reporting system.

We may reuse part of your posts or comments to our social media account(s) in material related to the creation, dissemination and promotion of Noarlunga or Renewal SA projects. We will take every reasonable effort to de-identify your comments before using them in this manner.

You grant us the right to reuse the information you choose to provide to our social media account(s) for the purposes detailed in this terms of use and for any other purpose detailed in our Privacy statement.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

With the exception of material posted on embedded third-party websites or shared via third-party social media account(s) Renewal SA owns or has rights to the intellectual property in the material that we post.

Subject to any specific licence terms that may apply or any restrictions placed on this material by a third-party owner, copyright material on our social media account(s) may be reproduced, or made available online or electronically. Any reproduction of the copyright material must include an acknowledgement of the copyright owner (Renewal SA or relevant third-party owner as the case may be).

Subject to any specific licence terms that may apply, copyright material on our social media account(s) must not be altered without the permission of the copyright owner (Renewal SA or relevant third-party owner as the case may be).

When using content from our social media account(s) that is licensed under a Creative Commons Licence, you are required to attribute the work in the manner specified in the licence (but not in any way that suggests that the Government of South Australia endorses you or your use of the work).
